

3 Car Accident Mistakes to Avoid Making

If you want to be able to get your insurance claim settled quickly

NUÑEZ LAW

A nighttime photograph of a city skyline, likely Chicago, with several skyscrapers illuminated against a dark blue sky. In the foreground, a complex multi-level highway interchange is visible, with light trails from cars creating streaks of white and red. The overall scene is a blend of urban architecture and transportation infrastructure.

table of contents

Introduction

1

Admitting to Guilt

2

Avoiding the Doctor

3

Talking to Insurance Reps

Conclusion

introduction

A man with a beard and mustache, wearing a grey blazer over a blue checkered shirt, is smiling and gesturing with his right hand while talking to another man. The second man, wearing a blue button-down shirt and glasses, is seen from the side. The background is a blurred office setting.

If you have been involved in a car accident, you do not deserve to suffer because of someone else's carelessness. You deserve to have a lawyer on your side. We want to get you the results you deserve. Avoid making these three mistakes in your car accident case.

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a blue long-sleeved top, stands on the left. A man with dark hair, wearing a light blue button-down shirt, stands on the right. They are both looking down at something out of frame. A large, stylized number '1' is overlaid on the left side of the image, partially covering the woman. The background shows green foliage and a blurred street scene.

1

admitting to guilt

It's tempting to get out of your car and say, "I'm so sorry. I looked away from the road for a second." You shouldn't say anything about who caused it—you don't know everything about the case yet. That is something that will be determined through investigation.

A photograph of a male doctor with a beard and glasses, wearing a white lab coat, examining a young woman's arm. The woman has long blonde hair and is wearing a white tank top. The background is a bright, clinical setting with large windows. A large, stylized number '2' is overlaid on the right side of the image, with the top half in dark blue and the bottom half in a lighter blue.

avoiding the doctor

Not going to the doctor is a huge mistake. Pain is not normal, and you need to get your injuries looked at. Don't delay— it won't help your wellbeing or your case.

The reps at insurance companies are trained to trick you when you give them a statement. If you give a statement, they will try to get you to say something that will ruin your claim. We want to protect you from them. Before you give a statement, contact us.

3 talking to insurance reps

conclusion

A man is sitting on a red couch, talking on a mobile phone. His left foot is prominently displayed in the foreground, wrapped in a thick white medical bandage. The background is slightly blurred, showing the man's face and the couch.

You deserve justice. We will fight to get you the results you deserve. Call us right away for a free consultation. Your case matters to us.

the stakes are high

Don't delay. You only get one chance.
Call us right away.

nunezlaw.com

(305) 481-9428

2828 Coral Way #206,
Miami, FL 33145